

Sweets

Everyone has a favourite sweetie, don't they? Maybe a crème egg, or a Mars bar, or maybe a bag of Maltesers. You might think that the same sweeties have been around 'for ever' but, of course, they change over time.

Listen to this clip of Betty and Suzanne Watson, two sisters, as they chat about their memories of sweet shops and their favourite sweets. Listen very carefully so you can answer the questions below. (Write your answers in the space below each question.)

- What is the name of the Sweet Shop they talk about?
- Can you name three sweets mentioned in the clip?
- How much pocket money did Betty and Suzanne get to spend in the sweetie shops?

Betty and Suzanne bought sweets in Sweetie Shops, traditionally shops that only sold sweets and nothing else. Where do you buy your sweets?

Do you have a traditional sweetie shop near you? If so, what is it called?

Task:

Think about interviewing a parent, grandparent, or teacher to find out what their favourite sweeties were and where they bought them?

Write a few lines below to tell us what you learned and how you think sweets and sweet shops have changed?

...write

TASK:

Use the space below to draw either a traditional sweetie shop or some different types of sweets?

.....draw

Find out more:

If you would like to listen to some more interviews, why not search the RESP website to find out more about sweets or anything else that interests you. HINT try using the search box to search for things like food, childhood, or sweets.

There are a lot of interviews to listen to on the RESP website and if you are not sure where to start or what to look for the secret is to just start looking and see what catches your interest. There are also other worksheets you can try on the Kids Only page that might give you some ideas.